

Fred Freeman Staff Scholarship

Up to $2,000 per semester
Applications due June 1, 2018

About the Fred Freeman Staff Scholarship

The Fred Freeman Staff Scholarship awards up to $2,000 in tuition assistance per semester to eligible Notre Dame staff pursuing a college degree or other post-secondary education/certification.

The Fred E. Freeman Staff Scholarship was established in 1994 with funds willed to the University by Mr. Freeman who retired in 1987 from the position of Associate Director of Personnel after 47 years of service to the University. His generosity continues to enhance the professional development of staff through the Fred E. Freeman Fund by providing tuition reimbursement for post-secondary education, certification, or a college degree.

Eligibility

The scholarship is available to regular, full-time non-exempt staff who have completed a minimum of one year* of service to the University. Selection of the scholarship recipient is also based upon other criteria, including availability of funds and relevance of the coursework to the applicant's current or future employment with the University. For more information, view the Fred Freeman scholarship policy at <http://bit.ly/fred-freeman>.

How to Apply

Review the application procedures and policy, then download and complete the application form. A short essay (300 words) and supervisor's recommendation are required. Applications must be submitted to the Office of Human Resources in person or via fax (574-631-8263) by June 1, 2018.

*One year of full-time service as of the first day of classes for which the employee seeks tuition assistance.
