The setting for the Notre Dame Baseball Camp is the nationally renowned campus of the University of Notre Dame, located on the outskirts of South Bend, Indiana, 90 miles east of Chicago on the Indiana Toll Road. All campers will reside in one of the residence halls normally occupied by undergraduate students of the University. Meals will be served in the North Dining Hall. Many of the nation’s finest athletic facilities will be utilized during each camp session.
Mik Aoki – was named the 20th head baseball coach in University of Notre Dame program history on July 13, 2010. Aoki arrived in South Bend after a four-year stint as the Eagle head coach in Chestnut Hill, Mass. He brought the Boston College baseball program into the national forefront after leading the Eagles to the Atlantic Coast Conference Tournament in 2009 and 2010 (the only two ACC Tournament appearances in school history) and their first NCAA Regional appearance in 42 years (2009). Aoki has coached 28 Major League Baseball draft picks and four free agent signees (history) and their first NCAA Regional appearance in 42 years (2009). Since his arrival at Boston College in 2004, three of those draft picks have been first-round selections in Mike Belfiore, Chris Lambert and Tony Sanchez. In addition, 16 of those 28 picks have been pitchers and two (Lamber, Joe Martinez) have reached the Major League level.

Prior to being named Boston College head coach, Aoki, a Plymouth, Mass. native, spent three seasons (2004-06) as pitching coach for the Eagles. Prior to his arrival in Chestnut Hill, Aoki spent five years (1999-2003) as Columbia head coach, leading the Lions to an 87-140 mark during that span. His teams won 20 or more games in each of his last three seasons. Before the Aoki era, the Lions had not posted a 20-win season since 1987.

Aoki has also served on the coaching staffs as an assistant coach at Dartmouth (1995-98) and Ohio (1993-94). He began his coaching career in 1992 as head coach at Manchester (Conn.) Community College.

Joe Hastings – a former All-American first baseman at East Carolina who has spent the last four seasons coaching at Boston College, enters his first season on the Notre Dame staff. Hastings will spearhead the national recruiting efforts for the Irish, as well as serve as hitting and infield coach.

In addition to his recruiting duties with the Eagles, Hastings worked with the Boston College infielders and hitters. He mentored eight Major League Baseball draft picks and six All-Atlantic Coast Conference performers in his four seasons with the Eagles.

Chuck Ristano – who helped lead Monmouth to a pair of Northeast Conference (NEC) Tournament championships and NCAA Tournament appearances, enters his first season on the Notre Dame staff. Ristano recruited and tutored three pitchers selected in the 2009 Major League Baseball draft, including Ryan Buch and Brett Brach, who were selected in the eighth and tenth rounds, respectively. In total, seven of his recruits eventually signed professional baseball contracts. Under Ristano’s guidance, seven pitchers earned all-conference honors, four earned all-region honors and four more were named TPA All-Americans, including Brian Butera, who was the 2007 NEC Pitcher of the Year. In his first season at Monmouth (2006), Ristano’s pitching staff ranked eighth nationally in earned-run average (3.34), setting a school record. In 2008, his staff posted a 3.99 ERA, as the Hawks joined 11 other teams to finish in the NCAA top 20 in ERA in two of the previous three seasons. In 2007, his staff set a school record with 374 strikeouts.

Jesse Woods – who spent the last three seasons coaching at Boston College, enters his first season on the Notre Dame staff. Woods will serve as the Irish outfield coach while assisting with the program’s recruiting efforts and hitters.

In addition to his recruiting duties with the Eagles, Woods worked with the Boston College outfielders and hitters. Barry Butler was drafted in the 21st round of the MLB First-Year Player Draft in 2009. Robbie Anston established himself as one of the best leadoff hitters in the country in 2009 and earned All-ACC second team honors. Anston was drafted in the 26th round of the 2010 draft, while John Spatola was nabbed in the 35th round.

Facilities:

The on-field instructional camps will take place at beautiful Frank Eck Stadium. This facility seats 3,000 Irish fans, equipped with four outdoor batting cages, pitching machines, and Major League Clubhouse. There are four bullpen mounds and a bunting area. The cage area includes tee and soft toss areas. Adjacent to Eck Stadium is an indoor pitching/hitting facility, which houses four indoor cages (two of which have clay mounds), is fully equipped with artificial turf, and has a classroom inside for video breakdown.

Staff:

The Notre Dame Baseball Staff, along with several outstanding coaches from the college and high school levels, will serve as instructors at camp. Members of the Fighting Irish baseball team will also serve in an instructor/counselor capacity. Applications will be processed on a first-come, first-served basis until all sessions are filled. Acceptance of a camper will be verified upon receipt of an electronic copy of the camp’s confirmation packet. This will be sent automatically to your email address once the application is completely filled out and payment is accepted. If after reviewing the confirmation packet, you have any additional questions, please contact the camp office at ndbcamps@nd.edu or (574) 631-8788. There will be a $25 walk-up fee for any application not received prior to the start of registration.

If a camp has been filled prior to the receipt of a camper’s online application, the camp office will offer the opportunity to have the application held on a waiting list.

Transportation:

For those needing to fly to South Bend, please call Anthony Travel, the Official Travel Partner of Notre Dame, at 1-800-366-3772. Identify yourself as attending the summer sports camps, and their on-campus sports travel professionals will research the most cost-effective flight options for you and provide invaluable consultative advice on traveling to campus.

Registration Process:

- If an accepted application is withdrawn for any reason up until 8 days prior to the start of camp session, you will receive a refund less a $75 cancellation fee. No refund will be issued within 1 week of a camp session’s start date.

Roommate Request:

Please keep in mind that we do our best to meet all roommate requests, however, due to the accommodation limitations we cannot always meet every request, and we will be under no obligation to honor requests received less than seven days prior to the start of camp. The majority of our dorms are doubles, but campers could be placed in singles, triples, or quads, depending on the dorm in which the camp is residing. Please know that if a triple or quad is requested, we cannot guarantee that one will be available.
