This is a summary of important pay and benefit information resulting from a change in position classification from exempt to non-exempt.

Pay

- Exempt employees are paid an annualized salary and are exempt from overtime pay in accordance with the Fair Labor Standards Act.

Pay Frequency

- Exempt employees are paid semi-monthly. Payments are deposited on the 15th day and the last day of each month.
- In the event a regularly scheduled payday falls on a weekend or holiday, checks are issued on the last work day before the regularly scheduled payday. Additional information on various University pay cycles may be obtained from Payroll Services at 574-631-7575 or by visiting the Payroll website at http://controller.nd.edu.

Retirement Plan

- Exempt employees participate in the University of Notre Dame 403(b) Retirement Plan upon meeting the eligibility requirement. Eligible employees are required to contribute 5% of their base salary through payroll deduction. The University contributes 10% of base salary.
- Pension Plan benefits are frozen/suspended. If the employee is not already vested, future years of service will count towards vesting for the pension plan.

For additional information on the University of Notre Dame 403(b) Retirement Plan, please refer to the 403(b) Retirement Plan Policy located at http://hr.nd.edu/benefits/retirement-savings/defined-contribution-plan-for-faculty-and-administrators-ndfa.

Vacation

- Vacation time will accrue based on the chart below. Any earned vacation time will remain and employees will be eligible to use this vacation time as scheduled with their supervisor.
- Vacation time should be submitted through MyTimeOff.nd.edu, and will be deducted from the accrued vacation bank in one-half day or full-day increments.

For additional information on vacation, please refer to the Vacation – Exempt Staff Policy located at: http://hr.nd.edu/nd-faculty-staff/forms-policies/vacation---administrators/.

Family Illness and Personal Days

- Ten (10) Family Illness days (80 hours) are allocated to each full-time, exempt staff member each calendar year.
- May be used for illness or injury of a qualifying family member.
- Up to two days (16 hours) may be used for personal reasons.

Short Term Income Replacement (STIR)

- The University offers 100% income replacement to provide continued income when an exempt staff's personal illness necessitates absence from work.
- Full-time exempt employees are eligible to receive their full base pay for up to a maximum of 26 weeks over a rolling 12-month period.
- Event eligibility is determined by The Hartford upon a review of the claim and medical evidence.
- Absences of more than one calendar week should be reported to The Hartford at: 1-877-877-6067.

For additional information on family illness, personal days and STIR, please refer to the Short Term Income Replacement Policy for exempt located at: http://hr.nd.edu/benefits/time-off-leaves/stirexempt/.

Reporting Family Illness, Personal Days and STIR hours

- Absences for exempt staff are reported through the MyTimeOff system on http://insideND.edu.
