Have a question about wills or estate planning?

Making decisions about estate planning or medical or end-of-life care for yourself or a loved one can be an emotional and difficult process. But planning ahead can help ensure that your important wishes are carried out and also ease the burden on the people who you care about. The LifeWorks program can help. Just go to www.lifeworks.com anytime and look for Quick Links and select Legal Resources. LifeWorks can help with questions you may have about:

- estate planning
- advance directives
- probates and estates
- trusts
- living wills and power of attorney

LifeWorks legal services offers access to:

- on-staff attorneys for free 30-minute legal consultations.
- Referrals to low-cost and no-cost public community legal resources.
- State-specific will forms, final arrangements memorandum, state-specific living wills, and more
- Referrals to local attorneys whom you can contact for a free 30-minute consultation on the phone or in-person.

Take advantage of your free consultation with our experienced attorneys and have them take a look at what you're planning. To schedule a consultation with an attorney, just call LifeWorks and you'll be matched with an attorney in your area.
