

PRE-ASSIGNMENT ASSISTANCE

Be prepared before you leave.

Great reasons to use Cigna's Pre-assignment Assistance Program

Have an easier and healthier transition.

You'll have access to tools that can help you identify medical problems before you leave for an international assignment. Learn about your new location and how to receive medical care while you're there.

Be prepared.

Review a checklist of things you should do before leaving home. Learn what to expect in your new country.

Learn about a country's health care.

Health care is not the same in all countries - it can vary greatly across the globe. You can learn more about your new location including how to access health care while you're there and how to obtain medications before or during your assignment.

Get individualized advice.

No two people are alike. You'll get customized feedback based on your specific needs.

While not everyone will need to speak with a Cigna clinician, if we determine that you may benefit from an outreach, a clinician may contact you via email or phone.

We'll help your family too.

Whether your family is coming with you or staying at home, your spouse and children can also participate in the Pre-assignment Assistance Program.

Any medical condition.

Persons with any medical condition may benefit from this program. Even if you are doing well in your home country, medical care may be very different in a new location. Let Cigna assist you in making sure you are prepared. If you need medical care, it is best to be prepared.

It only takes 10 or 15 minutes.

To access the pre-assignment assistance questionnaire, visit CignaEnvoy.com and select "I do not have a Cigna ID/Pre-assignment tools."

Living abroad is exciting, but health care systems are so different! I'm so glad we knew where and how to find a health care professional before we actually needed one.

Together, all the way.®
